If the authorized guest is not on the shuttle by the criteria selected, then the shuttle service will end when it reaches the drop off location and time has expired. D&G Limousine can not be responsible for individuals who do not make it onto the shuttle.

If the shuttle returns for the second trip and there are more people than the vehicle can accommodate, then the vehicle will only return to pick-up other individuals if the person appointed by you in #4 above signs the Chauffeurs Work Order indicating that a return shuttle is needed and any and all overtime fees are authorized to be charged to the credit card listed above.

Our chauffeur will need to see ID of said person to confirm identity. If an ID is not provided, the chauffeur cannot verify said person as the authorized individual. Without an ID, the signature is not valid and the shuttle will not return for any individuals that may not have made it onto the shuttle.
